

Joann Cheng, Chair and CEO of Lanvin Group, Honoured by WWD, FN and Beauty Inc as One of 2022's 50 Most Powerful Women

September 14, 2022 – Lanvin Group, a global luxury fashion group, is pleased to announce that its Chairman and CEO, Joann Cheng, has been recognized as one of 2022's 50 Most Powerful Women by Women's Wear Daily (WWD), Footwear News (FN) and Beauty Inc. The annual list highlights women who are creating change at the highest level of fashion, beauty and footwear. Embracing inclusivity across its brands, Lanvin Group is committed to celebrating diversity in the workplace and to supporting the development of talented women at every level. Lanvin Group strives to forge a culture of equality and inspire women to advance in their life as it continues to break the ceiling and push new boundaries.

- END -

About Lanvin Group

Lanvin Group is a leading global luxury fashion group headquartered in Shanghai, China, managing iconic brands worldwide including Lanvin, Wolford, Sergio Rossi, St. John Knits, and Caruso. Harnessing the power of its unique strategic alliance of industry-leading partners in the luxury fashion sector, Lanvin Group strives to expand the global footprint of its portfolio brands and achieve sustainable growth through strategic investment and extensive operational know-how, combined with an intimate understanding and unparalleled access to the fastest-growing luxury fashion markets in the world. For more information about Lanvin Group, please visit www.lanvin-group.com, and to view our investor presentation, please visit www.lanvin-group.com/investor-relation/.

Enquiries:

Media

FGS Global

Richard Barton
+852 9301 2056
richard.barton@fgsglobal.com

Harry Florry
+852 9818 2239
harry.florry@fgsglobal.com

Louis Hung +852 9084 1801
louis.hung@fgsglobal.com

Investors

ir@lanvin-group.com

<https://ir.lanvin-group.com/Press-Releases?item=22>